“ Courtney and I went to school together. She was such a beautiful soul. A heart of gold and laughter that could fill a room. We stayed friends through Facebook and said hi when we saw each other out and about. One of my fondest memories of Courtney was when we had a puppy that ingested a bottle of gorilla glue and we had to tell our children we had to put her down. I didn't know how to do it more how they were going to react and Court offered to come over and be there when we told them. She was such a beautiful person inside and out. Love you Courtney. My thoughts and prayers go out to Stuart and the rest of your family and close friends as they go through this time of loss. You will truly be missed. R.I.P. Beautiful Lady.

“ I married Courtney's Father Dec 24, 1996. Then to my great joy, I Acquired a daughter and another son. What a great blessing that was!!!!. Courtney so full of Life and sass. Straight to the point. A little sarcastic. No nonsense. Very smart. Dont get in my way, I GOT THIS ! Girl. Did mention tender hearted, beautiful smile, knock some sense in her brother, call you on your bull shit, whether it be her dad, her mom, no matter who, she adored her grandma and grand pa, loved her family, would stand up to Godzilla to protect the ones she loved!!! And by marrying her dad I was blessed with this AMAZING GIRL as a step daughter. Well my family does NOT recognize the word step. So to me Courtney and Justin are children that God gave me. Well after their father and I divorced. Left him Kept the love I had for the children. So divorced but not Courtney and Justin. Dear God thank for the Blessing of me be able to share her life for 27 plus yrs.

“ We used to look forward to going to see Courtney when we went into Sam's. She was always friendly, kind, working hard, and a big smile on her face. Our grandsons played football at the same time as Stewart and his momma and daddy were always there cheering on their son. I've never seen Courtney without a smile, even when she was sick and in tremendous pain. We love you sweet Courtney. Rest well in the arms of Christ. Until we meet again. Love and prayers of comfort for your sweet family.
