“ Debbie will be so missed! I enjoyed our deep conversations while working with her at Siemens (Rolls-Royce). I am so sad that we couldn't say goodbye, but we'll one day be walking together in HIS kingdom. Rest peacefully, Debbie. Love, The Crabtree's (your "son" as you would call Scot).

“ Sending sincere heartfelt condolences to family and friends. I have so many great memories from our childhood and teen years together. Riding horses on her Grandpa's farm next to her house, jabbering on the bus to/from school, rock hunting in the dry creek beds, and so many other wonderful times together learning about life and growing up. Debbie and I would go with her Dad to Lake Monroe on the weekend. We'd fish and swim and Phil taught me to water ski, which was such a thrill for me. We'd listen to music and eat fried chicken and drink Coke. Then we'd catch our limit in fish and head home so very happy and tired. Remembering those fun times were and are still a slice of heaven for me. The good fun times together double dating, going to movies, and having awesome Pizzeria pizza and strombolis, and just hanging out playing cards. Thank you Debbie. We will meet again. Hugs n Love.

“ Dear Cathy,

I am so sorry. You have lost your sisters and your Father in a short period of time. Looks like your Dad's hand around Debbie's shoulder in the picture. I liked hearing Debbie talk, she had a very soft voice, not that words were always soft, yet the impact was always on point. I just had a celebration with my two sisters, for our Mother's 80th Birthday. The joy we had reminded me so much of your love for your sisters. Makes me sad for you. I do not have any more words to say. Heaven is a nice place. As all we love are making a new home. And home is a nice place.

“ I met Debbie in 1994 while working at the Bloomington RCA factory. She was an amazing boss who later became a good friend. Debbie had a way of bringing out the best in people and never hesitated to share credit. She taught me a lot about Supply Chain and even more about working effectively with diverse teams. I will miss her wry sense of humor and her passion for life. May her memory live on in all the lives she has touched over the years. Her life may have been cut short, but she lived it fully. Debbie was one of a kind. I will miss her deeply.
