

Delores Ann "Ann" (Hawkins) Miller

July 15, 1934 - May 27, 2019

Delores Ann ("Ann") Hawkins Miller passed away on Memorial Day, Monday, May 27, 2019, at the age of 84. Ann was born in Bloomington, IN, to John Clinton Hawkins and Esta May Sanders Hawkins. Growing up, she learned the value of hard work, fairness, kindness, family, and faith from her mother. Ann graduated from Ellettsville High School and worked at Bender's Café and Indiana University before marrying and having her beloved children. For most of her life, Ann worked as a medical records coder at Bloomington Hospital. She enjoyed her work and was someone all colleagues, and her employer, could count on.

Ann was a member of Woodhaven Christian Church, and so loved her church family. Growing older and experiencing medical issues, she could not attend services in her last year, but she always had Jesus in her heart and was an earthly example of God's love to all. The lives Ann touched are countless.

Ann is survived by three daughters and one son: Melinda ("Mindy") Miller Pavlik (husband, Mike) of Houston, TX; Cynthia ("Cindy") Miller Daniels (husband, Roger) of Ellettsville; Lisa Faye Miller of Bloomington; and Donald ("Don") Miller of Solsberry. Also surviving are seven grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, and two sisters: Linda (husband, Russell) Latimer of Bloomington and Dunedin, FL; and Wanda Paul Galyan of Winston Salem, NC. Last but not least, Ann is survived by her baby, Brodie.

Ann was predeceased by her parents and siblings: Faye Hawkins Harmon, Vernie Hawkins Sexton, and Donald Hawkins.

Per Ann's wishes, there will be no viewing or traditional funeral. Rather, a celebration of life will be held at a later date, with Ann's dear friends Larry Sharp and Allan Headley speaking.

Words cannot express all that Ann was to so many people. A loving light, she will be missed beyond imagination.

“ I only got to meet her once when her son (Don) and I were in the Air Force. She was funny, loving and kind. I see her hard work and values in her son whom I am still very close friends with. Her loves shines on in the hearts and minds of her children <3

“ Don & Sisters we are so sorry for your loss. Ann is in no more pain & is rejoicing with our Jesus in Heaven. Don I am so thankful that you mother was a part of my life. She was a very sweet, caring lady who always had a smile when I would see her in the hospital. I got to know her better when I joined the Medical Review Nurses in Case Management & would occasionally call her for assistance in coding something we were working on for Medicare. I know you all will miss her. It is very hard losing a parent, but cherish all your memories & hold them dear to your heart. I will be praying for you all for comfort & peace during this time. Love you Don. Give each other hugs for Ernie & I.
