“ I've only just learned of Mrs. Applegate's passing. For two years I rented one half of a duplex from Mr. and Mrs. Applegate on South Swain Avenue; not only were they kind landlords, but they were generous people and community members. More than once they invited me in to share an afternoon meal, and regaled me with stories of Bloomington in the early days (when Mr. Applegate had to petition the city to have Swain Ave paved), how they started their family in the other half of the duplex where I then lived, and even excitedly shared their photographs and stories of their family trip to Africa. Mr. and Mrs. Applegate were truly lovely, loving members of the Bloomington community, and they are missed and fondly remembered. - Thomas Florio (IU, M.M. 2009)

“ I have known Betty for a long time. She and I served together in my P.E.O. chapter; she helped me decorate our family home and she made so many lasting contributions to the Bloomington community. I send my heartfelt sympathy to the family; she lived a long and fulfilling life and I am honored to have known her. Sincerely Gerry Miller
