“ Fred was a good basketball player for old Patricksburg High School. We also kept the teachers on their toes trying to keep us under control, which never happened. My condolences to his wife and family. Rest in peace my friend till we meet again.

“ I am saddened by the sudden loss of Fred. Wanda was my brother and I's babysitter for a little more than a decade, and by extension Fred acted as a father/grandfather figure in our lives. He was kind and generous, he was fun and taught us many things. Fred took us mushroom hunting, he taught us to shoot a gun, he poured concrete and installed a basketball goal for our enjoyment. Fred taught us about crawdads in the creek behind the house and how to plant a garden. Wanda and Fred took us on vacations, they went above and beyond what any care giver normally would do. They attended our basketball games and came to our schools for various performances. They showed up for us. They weren't care givers, they were and are our family. We are better people because of them. I can't thank Fred (and Wanda) enough for the numerous life lessons, wisdom and love they gave to us. Rest in peace Fred.

“ Fred and Cosden played a lot of basket ball together over the years. Fred was the rebounder and Cosden was the shooter. They enjoyed many practices and games together. They both enjoyed hunting and shared many hunting stories with each other. They were both very conservative in politics and values. They loved to talk about the Bible and Our Savior Jesus Christ to each other. Cosden and Doreen, look forward to seeing our dear friend in the Kingdom of God and sharing much with him
