“ I was so shocked to see the news of Jerry’s passing. While I had only rarely heard him play, I remember most his efforts to start the Alpine Ski Club. Jerry and Elaine were so enthusiastic about skiing and encouraging others to join. So many good times we had!

“ Dear Elaine and Family,
I had the privilege of singing with Jerry and the Stardusters Big Band when I had moved to Bloomington to care for my father around 2011. Jerry was so welcoming (as were you Elaine). He hired the finest musicians and it was an honor to be on stage with all of them. It also was truly a time when I needed to sing and Jerry afforded me so many wonderful opportunities. I am forever grateful for those experiences. He introduced me to many new wonderful songs and arrangements through his incredible library and was a real historian of big band music. They say old musicians never die, they just move on to the big gig in the sky....where I hear there is no set up or tear down, just a whole lot of heavenly swingin! May joyful memories make you smile and the love of friends and family comfort you in your time of mourning. Blessings to you all, Kathy Gibson~Grand Rapids, Michigan

Jerry and the Stardusters have brought so much joy and music to so many people. I was part of the Player's Pub Faithful and seldom missed a performance. I will miss Jerry as will many of his other followers. I look forward to his memorial dance at Arthur Murray Dance Studio. Phyllis Schwitzer

“ I first saw Jerry and the Stardusters play at Out of the Ordinary in Nashville maybe 5 years ago. I was blown away to see a big band.

The second time was at the Bloomington farmers market in 2017. The third was at the farmers market 2018. I started listening to WFHB IN Bloomington regularly anout the same time and found a radio show called Golden Age which plays on Thursdays. I had heard (there) that the Stardusters would be at the Players Pub. Never been there. I started to become a regular after going once and seeing them play.

I met Jerry, personally at the farmers market and again when he was at Players Pub. I approached him to ask if he had any interest in a male singer. We sat at a table in the back and talked. He told me I was pretty cocky! I laughed and agreed and was insistant that I could sing those songs.

We exchanged emails and a week later he sent a playlist of 50 songs. Told me to pick 5 to practice.

About 2 months went by, February 2019 or so, I reluctantly emailed him back to tell him I just couldnt do it with my current work schedule. This lost opportunity made me sick and sad.

Today, May 23rd, I got to tune into Golden Age radio as I work the evening shift today. Kathy Romy, DJ dedicated a lot of the show to Jerry. This is how I knew he passed away.

I feel sad today and very grateful that I got the opportunity to meet him. I think we would have become good friends as I love Doo Wop, old R&B and BIG BAND music! My most heartfelt condolences go out to his friends, family and all the fans who loved his contribution.
