“ Our deepest sympathies to David and Jayma’s extended family and friends. The world is a much colder place without the immense warmth and love she had for her family, students, and all who had the great pleasure of being touched by her kindness.

I haven’t seen Jayma since we graduated from high school but she is one of the few people you meet in life that leaves a lasting impression on you no matter how much time and how many miles may separate you from those memories. She was one of the most joyous and kind souls I’ve ever had the pleasure of knowing. She made all of us better people simply by being in the same room as her.

David spoke of Jayma incessantly while he and I attended Purdue together. I envied the love he has for Jayma. They were meant for each other and their love will live on forever through their children and grand-children.

God bless and god speed Jayma. We’ll never forget the lessons of kindness, love and acceptance you left within each of us.

“ Mrs. Acton was one of the kindest gentlest people I have ever met. She was my son Lucas's 1st grade teacher. She made him love school. She was not afraid of his abundance of energy and told me on more than one occasion that "to stifle that energy, just wouldn't be right. He has spunk, and I just love that boy". She even brought her mother to their 1st grade musical specifically to watch Lucas, because she had spoken of him so much that her mother "just had to come see him." We are so saddened by her passing, but as Lucas said to me when I picked him up today, "I am sad, but I know she is in heaven."

“ We are so sorry for your loss. My son, Jacob, said Jayma was one of his favorite teachers. (He had her for 2nd grade, he's a senior at IU now.) I remember her smile and the joy she exuded. We are so very, very sorry.

“ Dear David and family, Like you, I am heartbroken at the loss of my dear friend Jayma. She had the greatest laugh that made those around her smile from ear to ear! Her sneezes were always high pitched and three at a time. We always laughed about that! I could hear them coming through the concrete wall next door. I loved her kind and gentle manner, never saying an unkind word about anyone. She was an excellent teacher that I had the pleasure of working with and learning from. She loved her students and was their biggest protector and cheerleader. Jayma also dearly loved her family and was an extremely proud mother, wife, daughter, and grandmother. I will miss my sweet friend more than words can say. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Acton Family, I am a fellow St. Paul's parishioner. I did not know Jayma personally, but I often sat next to your family in church. I always admired the obvious love, affection and connection I observed among you. I have heard from many what a wonderful person Jayma was which was obvious to me as she radiated warmth and kindness. She clearly leaves an amazing legacy from the positive impact she had on so many..

Your grief is unimaginable and my prayer for you all is that your faith, as well as support of family and friends will provide comfort as you navigate your loss of your beloved Jayma.

I offer my sincere condolences.

God Bless,

“ Our children Charlie and Stella Ham both had the privilege of having Ms. Acton as their teacher. She brought warmth, positivity and joy to the classroom every day. Our kids love her and we will always be grateful for how Jayma taught them that learning is a pleasure, school is a privilege and curiosity is a muscle we exercise. Our hearts go out to Jayma's friends and family. With love, Allison Stites and Rich Ham

“ What a loss to the teaching community. Ms. Acton was my granddaughter's first grade teacher at Child's School. Lauren absolutely loved her and in turn Ms. Acton loved her back. We often ran into her in the community and she always asked us about Lauren. She will be missed by our extended family. She was a gem and our hearts go out to her family. Cheryl and David Moeller.
