April 14, 1971 - February 26, 2019

Kimberly S. Hinton, 47, of Bloomington, passed away on Tuesday, February 26, 2019 at IU Health Bloomington Hospital. She was born on April 14, 1971 in Allentown, Pennsylvania; the daughter of Keith and Suzanne (Harr) Hinton.

Kim valued education highly. Having spent her childhood in Stewartstown, PA, she moved to Bloomington, IN, shortly after college to begin her graduate studies at Indiana University. She received her undergraduate degree from Penn State University with a B.A. in Russian and International Politics. Kim worked as an Academic Advisor at Indiana University in the Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance Department, as well as the Gender Studies and Classical Studies Departments. All who knew her knew how passionate and knowledgeable Kim was about music, dancing, pop culture and literature along with traveling and cuisine. Most of all, Kim was a wonderful friend to all, deeply loved her family and cherished her time with her close-knit group of friends. Kim was a strong supporter of animal welfare and adored her Australian Shepard, Tadhg.

Kim is survived by her parents, Keith and Suzanne Hinton of Stewartstown, PA; brothers, Josh (Erin) Hinton of Portland, OR, and Erik (Rachel Syme) Hinton of Brooklyn, NY; nephew, Xavi Hinton of Portland, OR; partner for over 20 years, Steve Jarosz of Bloomington, IN; close companion, Bret Popper of Chicago, IL, along with several aunts uncles, cousins, and countless friends.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Harold and Hellen Hinton of Pen Argyl, PA, and paternal grandparents Milton and Mildred Harr of Coopersburg, PA.

“ Keith, Suzie, Josh & Eric- my thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. I know the pain you are experiencing. I hope your faith can comfort you at this time. It has been what is getting me through my loss of Marian. I will always remember Kim's smile. Another memory is when she and Steve were in Seven Brides for Seven Brothers at KD. If there is anything I can do for you let me know. I know Suzie I appreciated the time we talked at David's a few weeks ago. It was reassuring for me and a recall of good memories. May your grief and sorrow in the near future be replaced with fond memories of an amazing young lady.- Steve “ Kim was one of my best childhood friends. I have so many memories of time spent with her that still make me laugh. Although we drifted apart a long time ago, her friendship is still dear to me. I am very sad to hear of the passing of such a dynamic and kind person.

My heart goes out to the Hinton Family.

Sincerely,

“ My sincere condolences to all who loved Kim - myself among those people. Kim was a tremendous part of me making it through my PhD at IU because she made every classroom experience better by raising the bar of thought and curiosity, all while being one of the wittiest people I know. Her insights into representations of disability onstage shaped the way I understand theatre. And her accompaniment to a number of theatre productions was one of the best gifts during my time in Bloomington. I still find myself quoting her with some regularity. She had a way of summarizing everything in one really sharp sentence.

I send love to all.

“ Kim was my mentor when I first began working as an Indiana University Bloomington undergraduate academic advisor. She took me under her wing as the previous academic advisor in these departments and taught me how to be an effective advisor. I owe my success in part to her guidance. Kim touched many people's lives and left this world too soon. I will miss her and always appreciate her help in my first professional position.

“ I went to graduate school with Kim. She was a wonderful person. A kind, compassionate heart, a vibrant intellect that was never smug, a genuine energy and caring that always caught me off guard because it was so genuine and earnest. May she rest in peace.

“ Kieth and Suzanne, so sorry to learn of your loss. I did not know Kimberly, but from what I read she was a wonderful person and cherished daughter. Kieth, you probably don't remember me, but I lived next door to your parents in Middletown, and we played baseball in the Babe Ruth League. Again, accept my heartfelt sympathies.

“ Kim's laugh. Kim's smile. Kim's soft voice with the rising lilt when she was explaining something. The mischievous sparkle in her eye that would sometimes accompany that smile. The hallway conversations about Alphonse Mucha and art nouveau. So much of the day-to-day that I'd come to expect were gifts that will be so dearly missed. Kim was a generous and kind spirit, and a friend to colleagues. Kim was the welcoming, trusted and guiding voice for our undergraduate theatre and dance students.

Sending wishes of peace and comfort to Kim's family and friends during this painful time. May you find joy as you share your memories of such a remarkable and lovely soul.

“ Kim and I were in the same cohort of new College of Arts and Sciences advisors. She was always an admirably calming force among her colleagues. I was inspired by her completion of her PhD, as I continue to plod along towards the same goal. Kim was a lovely example to all of us who worked with her.

Peace and prayers,

“ Kim was my first best friend. I have so many memories filling my mind of rolling down a hill, sinking Air supply and Blondie in her room, ( she had the best room ever!), riding bikes and general silliness. Her family was my second family until I moved to NY when I was 13. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you now. Much love and many hugs being sent your way! - love, Annie Woodrome

“ Kim was an amazing colleague and an amazing friend. I won't forget her sense of humor, her quirky taste (we bonded over the movie Xanadu), and her unfailing generosity. I hope she knows how she will be missed.

“ Kim and I shared a dismal, windowless closet/office in the bottom floor of the Student Building when I first was hired as an advisor in the College. Of course we weren't in the cramped space together when one of us was meeting with a student, but we were often in that office space together when we were both working but not meeting with students, our respective desks almost touching. Kim was a delight to share that space with, and her wry sense of humor, insightful commentary, creative and colorful powers of observation, and sage advice always brightened those dreary basement confines for me during those early advising days. She understood when I didn't understand, and when I needed to be heard and understood because of some work problem, she heard and understood me. She really helped me through some rough times. I will always remember her for that. She was wonderful and I will miss her.

“ Dear Family and Friends of Kim,
Kim was an extraordinary person - beautiful, kind, and loving. She had endless patience for the students she advised; they loved her dearly. She was a trusted colleague and friend. Kim is irreplaceable, and we will miss her every single day on the second floor of the Theatre and Drama Center.
Please accept my deepest sympathies and condolences.

“ Kim was one of the first people I met as a new student at Indiana University, and her warmth, smile, generosity, and listening spirit instantly made me feel cared for and loved. That feeling extended to each interaction I had with Kim. My prayers go out to the Hinton family during this difficult time.
