“ Oh Nancy, I so loved sharing Mya and Makenna as our granddaughters. I remember pinky swearing with you at Wee Willies in Ellettsville that we would always be friends and Grandma's. Mya and Makenna so loved you!!! They will cherish all the Christmas tree ornaments that you got for them each Christmas, they are going to continue this tradition with their grand babies. My best memories of you is that you always made me laugh! I loved sitting by you at Mya's volleyball games, we would be gabbing away and miss most of the game, ha ha! You were a very special person Nancy and you will be so missed! I know you are in Heaven seeing all of your fur babies again.

“ Amy- though I never knew your mom, I know what it's like to lose one, and I know you-the daughter she brought into the world and helped to shape. if you are some reflection of her then she had a beauty and vibrancy that will be remembered and sustained through you-one of the most remarkable women I have ever known.

with love
