“ 3 North at Indiana University Health, would like to extend the deepest sympathy to family and friends of this amazing women. She not only filled the unit with her love and care for our staff, but her love and care for people. She was always tried to give a smile even when her eyes showed pain. She will always be remembered as one of the sweetest patients and dearest friends of this unit. Thinking of you Joe.
Love,
3 North

“ The world is truly a little bit dimmer with Pam's passing. I got to know her working in one of the offices in Eigenmann Hall. She had a huge heart and sunny smile and didn't know a stranger. She became a friend and I will truly miss her. Nancy Gagle

“ So sad to hear of Pam's passing. She and I grew up right across the road from one another on Chapel Hill. She was living with her Grandparents Clifford and Otha and I was living with my parents at the end of the lane where my Grandparents Ora and Goldie Deckard lived. I can remember us cleaning fish outside for her Grandma Otha to fry, playing in the old cars in Uncle Cliffords fields (amazing we never got snake bit), and helping break beans outside under the trees with Aunt Otha.

“ I knew Pam briefly when I was young. I had moved from wabash Indiana with my mom and dad to Bedford. My mother is a sister to Otha Eads Pam's grandmother. I am a cousin to olive her mother and Pam would be my 2nd cousin. Pam was being raised by Otha and Clifford. I lost connections and now I'm old but I remember Pam. I'm so glad she was in church and big with animals it must run in families. I'm. So sorry for your loss I'll see Pam in heaven . God bless you. Linda Tyree Courson
