“ Marilyn Bisch and Margaret Markowitz informed me of the sad news. My prayers and heartfelt condolences go out to the family.

I met Vanita and Wanda as a child when my parents and I visited our relatives in Indiana, but we lived abroad after that, most recently in Paris until 2013. My late mother, Kinuyo Graham Stuart, who also lived in Paris, used to correspond from time to time with Vanita. My mother would speak fondly and with admiration of her. Now, having read the obituary, I see that Vanita was very accomplished indeed and much respected.

Strength!

“ When I first came to teach at ISU in Vanita's department, she was so welcoming and helpful. And what a great sense of humor! She was always telling stories about children she had worked with--funny little language stories or events she'd witnessed in educating teachers and children. She spoke so eloquently at my mother-in-law's celebration of life in 2012...they were good friends. And she was a wonderful letter-writer! It was always a treat to receive a letter from Vanita. A more thoughtful, sweeter, more loving teacher, mentor and friend you could not find. You'll be missed, Vanita dear.

“ Vanita was a mentor and good friend. I will always be grateful for her guidance and encouragement to create lifelong learning in myself and my students. I learned to teach reading as an undergraduate with language development stories about Elizabeth. In graduate school she continued to expand my horizons. She is greatly missed.

“ Dr. Gibbs was an outstanding professor of elementary education. I had her for Children's literature and several other courses. She was a member of Delta Kappa Gamma which I was a member and president. She always sent very complimentary notes of appreciation. She had a fantastic memory reciting very long poems such as The Weaver.
She had excellent ideas of helping children learn and comprehend literature. Her influence helped me to be a better teacher. All of the students loved her.

“ Dr. Vanita Gibbs was a Charter Member of Delta Kappa Gamma Beta Eta. This means that she was an original member at the beginning of Beta Eta's Organization. Although I did not personally know her, I have read many wonderful newspaper articles on the Internet about her. Her friends of our organization will remember her fondly and miss her deeply. Our thoughts and prayers to her family. Christine Davies, President of Beta Eta

“ it Wasn't the number of times I got to spend as a kid with Ama G and your grandpa, but when I was blessed to go along with you to Terra Haute, they packed every minute full of fun! The old car, swimming, the meals, the laughter!!! They are very fun and important memories to me! Thank you for allowing me to be a part of it. I'll be praying for God to give you strong memories to instill and shape your kids with, and peace for coping with this shift in life. Love you all! - Dana

“ I am so sad to hear this news! I had her for class when I was working on my master’s degree at Indiana State w/a literature focus. I loved her passion for teaching! I’ll never forget when she gave every student in our class a copy of the book The Education of Little Tree. I read it aloud to my students one year and cried through a big chunk of it. Sobbing and blowing my nose may not have proven effective read aloud strategies at the time, but I know they definitely showed my students the impact of a good book on one’s heart and soul. RIP, Dr. Gibbs! Thank you for showing me how much #ReadingMatters. It inspires my life and teaching every day!

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. Dr. Gibbs was a beautiful person inside and outside. I was one of her many students at ISU. She influenced my teaching career in many, many ways. Her knowledge of how children learn guided my thoughts when planning lessons for my students. She was a person of character and integrity. I will miss her deeply. She was one of the best of the best of teachers I encountered during my career.
