

Vera Lettelleir

February 28, 1922 - December 8, 2019

Vera (Elkins) Lettelleir, 97, of Bloomington, passed away on Sunday, December 8, 2019 at Jill's House in Bloomington. She was born on February 28, 1922 in Bloomington; the daughter of John and Pearl (Jones) Elkins.

Vera married James H. Lettelleir on August 22, 1942, and they shared 73 years of marriage together until James' passing. Vera worked for RCA, Sarkas Tarzan, and later Cook, where she retired as an assembly line inspector. Vera enjoyed being at home reading, and spending time with her grandchildren. She was a beloved mother and grandmother.

Vera is survived by her children, Donna Galyan of Bloomington, and Teresa Mitchell of Bloomington; grandchildren, Tracy (Mike Whitesell) Galyan of Fishers, Greg Galyan of Bloomington, and David Mitchell of Kernsville N.C.; great-grandchildren, Julie Mitchell, Jordyn Galyan, Cassie Barnhall, Adam Barnhall, and Ryan Mitchell.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Henry Lettelleir, son-in-laws, Robert Galyan and Michael Mitchell; two brothers, and three sisters.

A private family service will be held at a later date. Cremation rites have been accorded. Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington have been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences, photos and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com

Comments

“ I didn't know Vera well, but always found her to be a very delightful and friendly person. I am sure she will be sorely missed by all her family and friends. My sympathy to all of them.

Joyce Johnson - December 14, 2019 at 10:26 PM

“ Vera was one of the first people I met when I worked at Cook the 1st time back in 1976, she was such a nice person come to find out her and my mom had grown up together in Broadview I have many good memories of Vera your family will be in my prayers in the coming days

Holly Davis - December 10, 2019 at 03:58 AM