“ This past week has been a rough day for our family. A time we never have seen coming.

When it comes to the saying...

You have left us all with broken hearts & at such a young age. this is so true.

This is really hard for both your father and I to believe. Bruce has lost his 1st born and his only son Adam. I have lost my step-son. The only son I have ever had. I watched you grow from a youngen to a handsome young man/husband.

You have been apart of my life, my heart along with my family's, our Christmas' and many other special events throughout the years.

Adam, You have filled my heart full of Love, Joy & Laughter.

I am so glad to have been able to call you my son. I have shed many tears and I know they are not done yet.

You are an amazing son, an amazing husband & you have many times took care of your sister.

As I have been watching and taking care of your Dad during this painful heartbreaking period. Please, Adam, watch over us and all of your Loved Ones. As I already know you are watching over your beautiful wife.

You are loved by many and will be deeply missed.

Rest In Peace my son, Rest In Peace!

With Love, Dad & Lori

“ I'm Adam's mom. I have so many memories of him which will be with me forever. 1 that stood out was when he was playing outside on driveway and he kept yelling what the heck and ow. Then he yelled mom come out here. When I went out he told me a squirrel was throwing crab apples at him. That was totally unbelievable to me but a min later sure enough it did and kept cackling at him! So funny. I just can't believe my baby is gone. My heart just aches.

“ Adam is my big brother and has always been my protector. There are so many wonderful memories I have of Adam- like the times he came to my aid when I needed help. Also some not so nice ones like when we were kids and he made me eat a worm. haha Adam never knew a stranger and would do all he could to help anyone in need. I am still in complete shock! I am lost without my forever best friend.

“ Adam and Angela were a very special couple. I always admired their deep commitment to God and to each other. I didn't know Adam very well but I knew that he was Angela's world. Angela, don't hesitate to reach out to those of us that are here for you. Even though we haven't spent time together since we both worked at the bank, please know that you hold a very special place in my heart. RIP Adam.

“ I was one of the Foreman that interview Adam when he started at the Indianapolis sub on nights . Adam always had a positive attitude from the interview to the day he Transferred to Bloomington no matter the task he had to do. He help my bridge crew many of nights and no one like to do that. But Adam did not mind , He said he loved to learn new things. I did not know that down the road I would Transfer to Columbus and have the privilege to work with him again .Adam worked for me on Monday and I was shocked to hear the news on Tuesday Morning. He will be truly missed . He was an encouragement to everyone he worked with.

INDOT's Mission, Vision, and core Values are Respect, Teamwork, Accountability, and Innovation formed around Trust. Adam had all of those .

Until we meet again in Glory Adam.
