“ *Brother John and the Edgeworth Family,
Please accept our condolences for your loss. Although I had only met Adele a few times, it was evident where you got much of your spirit and love for life.*

*The service in Bloomington was a great tribute to her life.
All the best wishes as the family moves forward.*

“ Suzi and Harry,

*You and your families are in our thoughts and prayers at this time. Adele was a beautiful lady in every sense of the word. She now is rejoicing with her Savior. "The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable; it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body...Death has been swallowed up in victory."
1 Corinthians 15:43,54 Lovingly, J.R. and Martha*

“ My sincere sympathy to the Edgeworth family. I know how dear your Wife/Mom/Grandmom must have been to you. I only met Adele a few times but she appeared to be very kind and pretty.

My prayers are with you all at this time.

*Sincerely,
Laurie*
