

Agatha (Aggie) Hostetler-Adams

January 15, 1925 - March 12, 2014

Agatha (Aggie) Hostetler -Adams was born on January 15th, 1925 in Bloomington to her parents Robert (Bob) and Loretta Schnubell. She married Jack Heagy and had her first children- Cindy, Taffy, Tim and Joe. After Jack's passing, Aggie joined the workforce and became the switchboard operator at Bloomington Hospital. During that time she met the man she described as truly the love of her life, Warren Hostetler. They married. Warren and his son Michael joined and together became one big family. During their marriage on Aggie's 39th birthday, Lori was born and the family was complete. Sadly, in 1985 Warren passed away. Years later, at the age of 73, Aggie married Bill Adams. They took life by the horns and rode it as an adventure, traveling cross country more than once. They were happily married until Bill passed in 2012. Aggie was a devout Catholic all her life and was an active member of St. John the Apostle Catholic Church. She was the head of the funeral luncheons, served on many committees and attended any event held at or for her beloved church. One of her Grand-daughters described her as beautiful, her appearance including her trademark scarves were important to her. Other phrases she described her -an encouraging spirit, quick witted and never at a loss of words. A huge IU basketball fan, she never missed a game. However standing 4'11, she was never asked to join in. For the last couple of years she lived at Meadowood retirement home where she was treated like a queen and enjoyed being the social butterfly she had been her whole life. She took up jewelry making as well. She would very seldom if at all go anywhere that she didn't know someone that she would call by name .She was loved by many and will be missed by all.

“ As I am in FI I will be unable to attend.

Bill and Miss Aggie were wonderful neighbors and I had many funny talks and visits. Aggie was one of a kind and I will miss her very much. What a great lady. Tell all the family I am so sorry for their loss.

“ Aggie was my godmother and always provided me with a strong influence of belief in god and was a positive role model for me as a child. I love all of her children, being an only child I always looked for a larger family to be a part of and Aggie's family always treated me like one of their own. I got the opportunity to talk to her a couple of times last year and she always maintained a good outlook on life even though things were tough on her. It was a privelege having such wonderful people in my life when I was growing up.

With Love,

John
