“ Denny, Jeff, Julie and Ken: Paul and I extend our sincere condolences in the death of my very dear friend Alice. Alice and I were friends at Bloomfield High and spent many sleep-over times together. Even though I moved away from Bloomfield after we graduated, we kept contact and I would visit with Alice on every occasion possible. The internet enabled us to have cyberspace visits as well. I was able to visit during good times and bad in her courageous battle with cancer and marveled at her strength and faith. I am glad that she and Denny had the time together that they did. Am thankful that a precious last visit with her was when we sat together at our 50th reunion dinner. She looked so lovely that night and it is a memory I will cherish forever. I count myself blessed that this very special woman was a part of my life. Alice, you will be missed.

“ Alice was my cousin from Indiana. I remember her since my childhood going back to Bloomfield visiting family with my father, Albert Terrell as a child. I remember she was always nice to me that I do remember. She came to California a few times for work and visited with me in San Francisco and we toured the bay area as family. I kept in touch with her occasionally through the years. I always will have place for her in my heart.

“ From my observation, Alice was a devoted daughter, a marvelous mom, and a wonderful wife. From my personal experience, she was a faithful friend. As an example to us all, she was courageous and undaunted as a cancer fighter. I will miss her so much.

For Denny: I remember in one of those stupid emails about your favorite things that Alice said that her favorite sound was your voice. She loved you so much!

For Jeff: Alice loved you, Bonnie, your children and grandchildren, but I don't have to tell you that. She was always concerned for your health and was proud of what you were doing to take care of yourself.

For Julie: Your mom was so crazy about your girls – well, you and Jon, too. I know you were so close that this will be an empty spot for a long time.

For Kenny: You've been hit so hard with your dad's passing and your mom's. She would have spared you both losses if she could.

“ As with all things of this nature, time will initially heal the wound of loss; but the memory, love, and essence of those gone before us carry us through the days until we meet with them again on the other side and that wound is finally sealed. Denny, I feel as a friend that you should know that my family is here to support you in what fashion you may need, do not hesitate to simply pick up the phone or shoot an email to us to assist or simply talk. Our condolences are extended to you and your family.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Alice's passing. She was a classy lady with a big heart. I was a Tri Kappa sorority sister and also shared First Baptist Church Bloomfield with her. One of my favorite memories of her is the first time I met her - I was visiting Bloomfield First Baptist Church with my older son, who was about 4 at the time (we're talking almost 26 years ago). I was pretty nervous - new church, trying to keep a small child quiet. She and her youngest son were sitting in the row behind me. About 1/2 way through the service my son started getting antsy. The next thing I knew, a tap on the shoulder led to a smile from Alice and a shared toy from her son. That act of kindness - to a stranger - meant so much to me! She made me feel welcome and accepted. And I think it summarizes the Alice I knew - always reaching out to others in kindness and compassion. Her faith and kindness have stayed with me all these years, and when I see a small child at church getting antsy, I have a tendency to reach into my purse to pull out a small toy to share, along with a smile. Alice, you led by example, without even knowing it. I'm sure heaven rejoices in your being there.

“ Jeff, Julie and Kenny,
Your Mother was always a very pretty, super nice & pleasant person with encouraging words for all. I never saw her that she didn't have a smile. I know that you will miss her dearly. She will live on in your heart and mind with all the great memories.
Your Mother was such a cancer fighter & a great role model for a cancer patients.
It is so hard to understand why nice caring people have to endure
so much illness.
God Bless you and watch over you during this time of sadness.
