

Alice M. Piercefield

March 6, 1955 - June 7, 2024

Alice M. Piercefield fell asleep in the Lord with her beloved husband, Marvin, by her side, on Friday, June 7, 2024, in Bloomington, IN. She was born on March 6, 1955, in Cleveland, OH to Robert and Evangeline Hunter.

In life, Alice worked as an LPN. She was a devout Orthodox Christian and a member of All Saints Orthodox Christian Church in Bloomington. She was an avid traveler, a pet lover, enjoyed completing complex puzzles and was known for her chili—even being a chili champion! Alice’s love for her husband, Marvin, was endless; they loved being in each other’s company and were steadfast in their commitment to one another. He was her knight in shining armor.

Survivors include Alice’s husband, Marvin Piercefield; her son, Tasso Tsalabounis, daughters, Evangeline Tsalabounis and Maria (Andy) Reyes; and grandchildren, Sydney Reyes, Chandler Reyes, and Tirstana Tsalabounis. Alice was preceded in death by her son, Robert Tsalabounis. Her presence will be dearly missed by all her knew her.

A visitation will be held on Sunday, June 9, 2024, from 5-6pm at All Saints Orthodox Christian Church (6004 S Fairfax Rd, Bloomington, IN 47401). A Divine Liturgy will be held on Monday, June 10, 2024, from 9-10:30am with the funeral starting at 10:30 at All Saints Orthodox Christian Church. A burial will follow the funeral. A Mercy Meal will then be held at the church immediately after the burial.

Allen Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements.
