

Amanda Brooke Delaney

January 11, 1979 - February 14, 2025

Amanda Brooke Delaney, aged 46, passed away in Bloomington, IN on Friday, February 14, 2025. She was born in Philippi, WV to Janet Cullum on January 11, 1979. She enjoyed working as a driver for Lyft due to meeting new people and the flexible schedule. Amanda's hobbies included cooking and listening to music. Her favorite food was Chinese food, and her favorite TV show was "Friends". She will be dearly missed by her family.

Survivors include her daughter, Alexis Samuels; granddaughter Ciana Eaton; mother, Janet Cullum; stepfather, Malcom Cullum; brother, Eric Cullum; and sister, Melissa Delaney.

A celebration of Amanda's life will be held at Karst Farm Park on Friday, February 21, 2025, from 3-9pm. Allen Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements. Donations in Amanda's memory may be made to a charity of your choice.

“ My heart breaks for all of you. This news was so shocking when Wendi called me all I could say was your cousin, our cousins Mande? Mande always had the biggest and most genuine laugh; it was contagious. She was loved and will be missed. Lexi we have to get together, tell stories about her and keep her memory alive. All if you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
