“ I Knew Andrew for many years lived up the street from him and his family. I remember always at the scout meetings we would try and see who would make the best diesel truck sounds!! Shouldn't say this but we would sneak upstairs and look at Jack's crime seen photo's. I always wondered what happened and I sure miss you my brother!!

“ Andrew and I were best friends as young children at St Vincent's Catholic in Bedford Indiana, Andrew was an extremely talented artist even at a young age, I remember being in Cub Scout meetings at his home when his mother was Den mother, he and Troy Chastain were such good artist and we were all good friends. I lost touch once Andrew left St Vincent's. I remember his Father Jack being a Bedford policeman. I admire that Andrew was a Marine and served this great nation. Thank you for your service and sacrifice. I know you will be missed. RIP Drew.

“ Dear Etta Mae,
I'm truly very sorry to hear about Andrew. I wish we had known he was living in Bloomington. Perhaps there would have been a chance for he and Troy to re-connect from their Cub Scout days and re-establish a family relationship.

You must have been very proud of the man he had become.

My deepest and sincerest condolences to you and his family. God bless all of you.
