

Ann Rose Johnson

April 15, 1930 - April 3, 2021

Ann Rose Johnson, 90, of Bloomington, died Saturday, April 3, 2021 at Jill's House in Bloomington. She was born on April 15, 1930 in Bloomington; the daughter of George and Bessie (Wampler) Johnson. She married Charles Vaught on July 28, 1946.

Her professional career included work as the assistant to William J. Strain, Architect and legal secretary for Baker, Barnhart, Baker & Nardi Attorneys at Law. Her talents were many and included a lifelong love of music and playing the piano. An artist at heart, she enjoyed design, sewing, painting, and needlework.

Ann is survived by her son, Sam (Anne) Vaught; grandchildren, Jason Vaught and Lauren (John) Fox; great-grandson, Ben Fox; brother, Jim Johnson; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and siblings Bill, Willard, Mabel, Russell, Betty, George, Peggy, and Jerry.

A private service will be held. Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington, have been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences, photos, and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com

The family would like to express thanks for the wonderful help and care given to Ann by the nurses and staff at Jill's House and Hospice Care Bloomington and to Allen Funeral Home.

“ I am saddened to hear of Ann's passing. We were neighbors in the 1990s, and we shared great conversations on the bus ride from downtown. She was a kind, wise woman.

“ This lady was such a pleasure to have a conversation with. She would come by the office on a regular basis to chat and tell stories that made me laugh and would always worried she was taking up "my time" - Always thinking of other people. I will miss dropping in to her home for a short chat and a few laughs. She is truly one of the nicest people I have ever met. She will be missed so much. I can definitely say my world was better with her in in. I can only imagine the smile on her face when she met up with all of her siblings. Fly high sweet lady. Heaven is blessed to have you as an angel.

XOXOXO - Much love, prayers and sympathy to the Vaught/Johnson/Fox/Johnson family.
