“ I was so saddened to hear of Ann's passing. She was my first cousin and I enjoyed our visits so much! I phoned her from time to time and she was always so loving and kind. I first met Ann back in 1939 when she, her brother Charles, and their parents visited our grandmother, Sarah Terrell Howard, in Lexington, MO. May she, her brothers, and their parents rest in peace. “ My mother, Hazel Terrell O'Malley, was Ann's aunt. So, Ann was my first cousin and I treasured the Indiana visits I had with her and our phone calls! I first met Ann when she and brother Charles and their parents visited our grandmother, Sarah Jones Terrell Howard, In Lexington, Missouri in 1939. We didn't meet again until 1989 when Ellie and I were in Indiana and found where she was, we bonded right away and I felt like I'd known her all my life! What a sweet lady she was! I know we'll all miss her very, very much. May she and her brothers and their parents rest in peace!!!! Jim (&Ellie) O'Malley, Warrensburg, Missouri

“Loved my Auntie Ann. She was a beautiful woman in and out. She worked hard all her life; that was who she was (the Terrell thing). No sitting around for her. :) We had some great times together. We will miss you so much. Always in our hearts.

“Grandma, I love you and will miss you dearly. As we always said, "I'm SO glad GOD gave me you." You loved fiercely with all you were until the very end. I promise to carry on your legacy and make Lemon Meringue pie when needed. Love you to pieces Fly high beautiful angel.
