

Annabell Braman

July 29, 1924 - April 13, 2024

Annabell Loretta Braman was born, Annabell Leal, on July 29, 1924, in San Leandro California. She was married to the love of her life John “Jack” Hibbard for 35 years before his passing in 1980. In 1985 she married Richard Braman and together in 1988 they moved to Sequim, Washington to be closer to her son and granddaughter. Sadly, Richard passed in 1989.

In 2014 she moved with her family to Bloomington Indiana where she spent her final years until she passed away surrounded by her loving family on April 13, 2024.

Annabell or “Grammy”, as she was affectionally known, is survived by her loving son Michael Hibbard and his wife Marci. She would never refer to Marci as her “daughter-in-law”, instead referring to her as her “daughter”, as they loved each other as only a mother and daughter could. Annabell is also survived by her granddaughter, Kate (Derek) Gibbons and great granddaughter Abigail Ann of Canal Winchester, Ohio. She leaves behind 2 very dear friends, Gretchen Sederman of Las Vegas Nevada and Marilyn Dodge of Sequim Washington.

As a lifelong Catholic, Annabell could be found every morning saying her prayers and reciting the rosary. Her survivors take comfort in the belief that she is finally reunited with her beloved Jack, and safe in Jesus’ arms.
