

Annette Frances Eads

June 1, 1930 - May 30, 2014

Annette Frances Eads, age 83, of Bloomington passed away Friday, May 30, 2014, two days shy of her 84th birthday, at Garden Villa. She was born June 1, 1930 in Long Island, New York to Charles and Sibina Winkle Binger.

Annette spent her professional career as a registered nurse primarily working for Dr. Link in Bloomington and also spent over 20 years as a hospice volunteer. When she wasn't spending time with her career and family Annette enjoyed her involvement with the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, the Red Hat Society and bowling. She was also a member of St. Paul Catholic Center.

Annette leaves behind two sons, Michael A. Babneau of Solsberry, and Gary P. Babneau and wife Bobbi of Ellettsville; granddaughter Marci Dronkers and husband Troy of Bloomington; grandson Brian Babneau and wife Robin of Ellettsville; granddaughter Jessica Johnson and husband Jared of Bloomington; step son Richard Eads of Linton; great grandchildren Dillin, Isaac, and Payton Dronkers, Brandon and Lindsey Burns, and Sierra, Gage, Jacob, Ariana, Jonah, and Nevena Johnson.

She was preceded in death by her parents, son Dale Babneau and his wife Candace, former husband Alfred Babneau, husband Gus Eads, and companion Charles Stansfield.

Annette's family will receive friends and family on Monday June 2,

2014 from 3:00PM until 7:00PM to celebrate and remember her life at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old Highway 37. The family requests that in lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Bloomington Hospital Hospice House and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ Marci, I'm thinking of you now, as always! I am praying for you a peaceful heart throughout all of this. Your Nanna was SO lucky to have such a wonderful, caring, willing granddaughter to help her when she was no longer able to care for herself. I admire your strength. If you need anything at all, don't hesitate to ask, you know I'm here! I love ya! ”
