

Anthony Ankrom

October 4, 1972 - January 11, 2013

Anthony M. Ankrom, 40, of Bloomington, passed away unexpectedly Friday at his home. He was born on October 4, 1972 in Bloomington, the son of Marcia K. (Hoopingarner) Ankrom and Michael H. Ankrom. Anthony attended Logansport High School, Harmony School and Indiana University. He was a Chemistry major. He attended the Sherwood Oaks Christian Church. Anthony enjoyed spending time with his much loved daughter, Emma Hammock, and his family and friends. He loved to make things out of recycled electronic parts from computers, radios, etc. He taught himself to play guitar, loved a variety of music and watching movies. Anthony is survived by his daughter Emma Hammock, his mother Marcia K. Ankrom; his father Michael H. Ankrom (Lynna Sue); his sister Melissa Gwen Bruder, and his two nephews Bryce Bruder and Luke Girton. He was preceded in death by both maternal and paternal grandparents. A Celebration of Life will be held at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, January 16, 2013 at the Friends Meeting House on Moores Pike. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Harmony School.

“ I was sorry to hear about Anthony's passing.
We attended Harmony High School together. He was very artsy & creative. A very gentle soul, too. A good person. I remember his love for the artwork of Salvador Dali.
Please know he will be missed.

“ Marci:
I was both shocked and saddened at this news. Anthony was truly an original and had a tremendous zest for life. Our planet was better for his having been here, and I wish you strength during this premature loss of one of us.

“ We want to extend our condolences to your family. Anthony was a regular in the store, sometimes more than once a day. He was always building something. He would spend maybe an hour just searching parts, making notes. We just saw him about a week ago, he was working on another project. We have lost a good friend and customer. Our hearts and prayers go out to you all.
