“ For as long as we have lived here, Art was a fixture of our neighborhood. We missed him when he moved, and still miss him. I remember clearly his cheerful "Howdy, neighbor" when we'd meet by chance somewhere around town. He's a loss to the community. Sybil and John Eakin

“ I will miss Art so much. Our outings were always a highlight for me as much as it was for him. But I know he is with his sweet Dolly now & happy. He feels at home again. Love Mary Jane Abram

“ One of my favorite memories of Art is when he and Dolly would come over to my parents house for dinner and my mom would always make a chocolate cake with the homemade icing-Art would walk in and say "Oh look Faye made one of those brown cakes" !! My condolences to the family. Dan Jackson

“ *Andy & family.
Please know that you have our deepest sympathy in your great loss and know that our hearts go out to you & your families.*

We wish there were something we could do or say that would ease your pain, but know in your heart we are thinking of and praying for both of you and your families.

We know in our hearts that Arthur is safe in our Saviors arms until you meet again.

*Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
still loved, still missed and very dear.*

Thinking of you at this time of your loss.

If there is anything you need or we can do for you, please let us know.

*Thoughts, Love and Prayers,
Cindy & Freddy Sturgeon*
