“ I met Auggie when I worked at Warren's Guns at 11th and Morton. He used to buy archery stuff from Warren, and grew up hot roddin' around with Warren Trinkle, and they would talk about it every once in a while. They were huntin' buddies and fun to listen to their stories. He always had good advice, and had arms like a Gorilla, especially when it came to drawing back his incredibly powerful bows. He could hit a quarter shooting at 30-50 yards every shot, and had many sponsors and trophies to prove it. He repaired several of my vehicles when I needed them fixed, and helped me through some of my toughest times after the death of my Father. I'm sure he's hunting with Warren up in Heaven now. I miss the old days when he was around for sure. Condolences to the Family. Ted Welch

“ I actually remember going to Bezzy's Body Shop with my Dad when I was just a youngster maybe 6 years old back in the 70's. Was really nice knowing him in my later adult years when he would come to our business. He even brought me some frozen fish one year. Though I didn't see him that often in recent years, it is my pleasure to be able to call him my friend! DRB
