With this many boys, she quickly developed a deep love for softball and was faithful to attend all their games, cheering them on no matter how many games that entailed. She was always there to lend an ear to her kids who had a problem or a secret and just needed to talk. The only time she was unavailable was at 2:00 in the afternoon when Days of Our Lives was on.

By her side for 17 years was her faithful white poodle Moochie. Besides her kids, grand kids and great grand kids, Barb loved bingo, win or lose she rarely missed a game but she liked to win. Her other loves included going for a fun afternoon on Fridays with her sisters, Shirley and Donna. Visiting her sister Sandy and brother Arthur. She loved Chi Chi's restaurant and most of the family get together there. She loved going out to eat with her son Tony and Lisa and going to their house for dinner. She loved orange Sunkist but it had to have a straw, and ice cream was a must every night. She was a "Mom of all trades", from playing ball with the boys to teaching Scott how to drive a stick shift. She will be missed by all but will always be remembered for her smile and contagious laugh. Barbara had 4 siblings. Donna Hillenburg, Shirley Bell, Sandy Axsom, and Arthur Axsom.
