

Bernadette Miles

October 25, 2013 - October 25, 2013

From the moment of confluence through the spark of animation; from the physical heralding of the quickening through the aching, fighting emergence into the air, Bernadette Ann blessed our lives with a drape of humility, acceptance of gifts, and bracing for the future. In her brief time in our bright, unsettling domain she displayed an incomparable beauty and taught us and reminded those who fought for her life on this plane that we are but passengers in a fragile, imperfect vessel; that we are not the dust come together to carry us around for awhile. With grace, her form brought us peace in the knowing that our love had made ready a vessel worthy of one to come into and be forever a part of our family.

Bernadette Ann emerged into and passed out of this world on Friday, October 25, 2013 late in the afternoon. She had amassed 7 lbs. and 2 oz. in her 20 in. of length. With the hair of her father and the eyes of her mother, her beauty will forever remain in our memory.

She is the daughter of Lee A. and Tricia Anne (Pagani) Miles; sister of Niccolo P., Callum P. and Marcella R. Miles; granddaughter of Alan P. and Treva Ann (Aldredge) Miles and Victor N. and Carla J. (Azzarello) Pagani; great granddaughter of Eileen D. (Butler) Alldredge; niece of Michael P. and Jenny Lou (Miles) Cardosi, David R. and Christina M. (Pagani) Wrobel and Marc V. Pagani; cousin of Geno M., Rocco A. and Gigi L. Cardosi and Gennavieve M. Wrobel; great-niece of Charles and Mary Nell (Miles) Robertson, Carol (Miles) Watkins, Tom and Rhonda (Alldredge) Canale, Bruce R. Alldredge, David and Norma Pagani, Emily Pagani, Hal and Nancy (Pagani) Shoemaker, Paul and Sandra Pagani, and Thomas C. Azzarello.

The family will hold Mass 10am Saturday November 2, 2013 at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church in Bloomington, Indiana. Condolences may be directed to Allen Funeral Home (www.allenfuneralhome.org).
