

Bernard Hawxhurst

April 27, 1929 - February 4, 2010

Bernard Hawxhurst, of Bloomington, died Thursday in his home. He was 80 years old. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Maxine; four children and their spouses, Gary Hawxhurst, Jodie Hawxhurst McCormick & Scott McCormick, Doug & Yvonne Hawxhurst, and Betsy Hawxhurst Pate; nine grandchildren and their spouses, Darci Hawxhurst, Brady Hawxhurst, Lori & Tim Kritzer, Drew Minett, Mandy & Jerry Scarborough, Brian Hawxhurst, Megan Pate, Jessica Pate, and Craig Pate; and six great-grandchildren, Haylie Hawxhurst, Logan Kritzer-Bond, Clayton Scarborough, Abby Scarborough, Zach Kritzer and Olivia Kritzer. He is also survived by three siblings, Mary Dollings, Grace Patterson, and Joe Hawxhurst, all living in Ohio. Originally born and raised in Zanesville, Ohio, Bernard brought his young family to Bloomington in 1964. He retired from RCA in 1988, after more than 30 years of service. For leisure he was an enthusiastic golfer. Professionally, he was a hardworking, fair, innovative manager. Personally, he was a disciplined, devoted, generous provider for his family. He will be dearly missed by so many who love him. A informal memorial service will be held at the Bloomington Convention Center in the Rogers Room on Saturday, February 13th from 1-3pm with visitation following from 3-5pm. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Red Cross.

“ Dear Betsy, my deepest sympathy for the loss of your Dad. I cannot begin to know what you are going through although I did just lose my father in law in January so I do feel your pain to some extent. I hear that only time will help ease the pain. I hope that you have some wonderful memories to hold dear to your heart. If there is anything I can do for you, please do not hesitate to ask. Jody
