“ Betty was such a sweet lady and Christian. Will be missed by family and friends. I have one of her oil paintings that I will cherish forever. She sold it to me in a yard sale for a dollar and it was worth 100×100 times more. Rest in peace dear lady with our Lord!

“ Betty shared her friendship and hospitality with me many times as I visited family in Indiana. I anticipate knowing her in eternity because of our mutual trust in Jesus and His promises. I am sharing that hope along with every sorrow at her passing. We are also blessed to have the beautiful watercolor Betty painted for my mother Atha. With love, Sissy
