“ Tom, you and your family have been in my thoughts and prayers. Someone once told me at the loss of my father 9 years ago that one of the saddest days on earth for me was one of the happiest in heaven for my dad. Those words brought me great comfort. I hope that they help you in the days to come.

“ The Serflings wish to send their condolences to the Dukes Family for their lost. We did not know Betty well, but if she was anything like her family she was one terrific lady. I'm certain you have countless fond and treasured memories and we will be thinking of you and keeping you all in our prayers. God Bless, The Serflings.
