

Beverly Jean Mitchell

November 8, 1927 - May 13, 2022

Beverly Jean Mitchell of Bloomington, Indiana, passed away at home on May 13, 2022 at the age of 94. She was born November 8, 1927 in Gaston, Indiana. She was an Indiana University graduate with a major in mathematics. While attending IU, she met the love of her life, Thomas J. Mitchell. They were married on August 24, 1949 in Rensselaer, Indiana.

Beverly worked at the Art Museum in Indianapolis, Indiana and volunteered for many organizations including the Mental Health Center. She was an avid IU sports fan and supporter. She shared many domestic and international travels with her best friend and husband, Tom. She was a Master Gardener, an active member of the Bloomington Garden club and helped organize their garden walk. She was a lifetime voracious reader and she enjoyed bible study. Her recent activities included crossword puzzles (in ink), jigsaw puzzles and word search.

Beverly is survived by her children Susie Tingle (Mike), Patrick Mitchell (Joanne), Jane Mitchell, Anne Klarich (Dan) and Mary Uhrich (Mike); by 7 grandchildren, Alex Tingle, Whitney Temple (Josh), Brian Klarich (Laura), Alison Kimmel (Jesse), Mitch Lindsey, Britni Uhrich and Kyle Uhrich (Tessa); and by 6 great-grandchildren, Jackson Kimmel, Callie Kimmel, Maya Klarich, Evelyn Teske, Aralyn Casteel and Gracelyn Casteel. She was preceded in death by her parents, Winifred and Dale, and her beloved husband Tom, who passed away August 23rd, 2013.

JO

“ Beverly,

If it wasn't for you, I would have never met my very reason for living (my wife Whitney). You raised a beautiful family, who then went on to raise their wonderful families. You are responsible for so much good in the world and you'll forever be missed. My time I got to meet you and have lunch next to you will forever be cherished.

With love,

JOSH
