

B.F. Childress

September 16, 1913 - June 29, 2014

Broughton Fulton (B.F.) Childress, 100, of Bloomington went to be with The Lord on June 29th, 2014. He was born September 16, 1913 in Six Mile, South Carolina to Rev. Fulton and Josie Childress. B.F. graduated from Clemson University and received his Master's in Education from Kent State University. He had a wonderful career in education as beloved teacher, principal and other administrative positions. He was a long time member of the Lions Club in South Carolina, Ohio and Indiana, and a past president in Bloomington. He served his church in many areas over the years including chairman of deacons, trustees, Christian education and more.

B.F. is preceded in death by his parents, six siblings and by his loving wife of 70 years, Esther.

Survivors include his daughters Ida Jo Allee (Jim) and Betty Anderson (Dan). He is also survived by his granddaughters Christine Allee and Kerry Thatcher (Dan) and great-grandchildren Cameron, Anna, Mia and Lana Thatcher. B.F. was the oldest of nine children and is survived by two sisters, Anne Roe and Miriam Stone of Easley, South Carolina.

While B. F.'s earthly life has ended, his faith, his compassion for others and his humor and laughter live on in his family.

Services will be 2pm Monday July 7, 2014 at the First United Church 2420 E. 3rd Street Bloomington, IN 47401. Visitation will be from 1-2pm Monday at the church. Entombment will follow at Valhalla Memory Gardens.

In Lieu of flowers memorial contributions can be sent to Our Hospice/South Central Indiana 2626 E. 17th Street Columbus, IN 47201 or the First United Church.
