

Bonnie Lee Gammon

January 16, 1943 - November 21, 2016

Bonnie Lee Gammon, age 73 of Bloomington, Indiana passed away Monday afternoon, November 21, 2016. She was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on January 16, 1943 to William Harry Brodbeck and Joann David Diener Brodbeck.

She had gracefully waged a courageous battle against cancer for 2 years. Saturday evening she announced that she'd "had enough" and shortly thereafter she passed peacefully at home with her family. She received her BA from Indiana University in French and Art and was a member of the Chi Omega Sorority. Upon graduation from IU she briefly taught French and English in the MCCSC Schools. She spent the next 13 years at home raising her two daughters. Bonnie became a licensed Real Estate Broker in 1985 then went on to spend the next 30 years as a Broker in Bloomington. She truly enjoyed assisting buyers and particularly helping young couples find their first home. Bonnie had a talent and a love for dance, as a young lady she was a ballet dancer for 14 years. As an adult, she loved the dance classes at the YMCA. She could always be found "front row, center" and she never missed a step! Reading, exercising and traveling were her much loved hobbies. Bonnie treasured her international travel with her daughters, sister and friends in addition to her family cruises. Within the last 9 years, she particularly enjoyed traveling with or out to see her grandson Emerson.

Bonnie leaves behind her husband Robert Gammon; children Gina Gammon

Searle and husband Chris, Krista Eckert and husband Johannes; grandchild Emerson Searle; and sister Patricia Ann Medlock. She was predeceased by her parents. “ *My sincere condolences to you Bob and your children, Gina and Christa. Bonnie was a beautiful woman inside and outside. The last time that I saw Bonnie, at Macy*s, she said "it sure goes fast ".
Indeed it does! Although we have lost some contact over the years, we have never lost the friendship I had with Bonnie,Bob, and girls.
My thoughts are with you. Love, Phyllis Kenworthy*
