

Bradley Scott Holsapple

August 23, 1964 - April 25, 2017

Bradley Scott Holsapple, 52, of Bloomington, passed away on Tuesday, April 25, 2017 at his residence. He was born on August 23, 1964 in Bloomington, the son of Ronald L. and Sharon K. (Grubb) Holsapple.

Scott retired from General Electric after nearly 32 years of service and was a loving caregiver to his family. He was an avid gun collector and liked watching IU Basketball and Colts Football. He enjoyed electronics and riding ATV's and motorcycles. Scott will be remembered as a kind and caring man to those around him. Scott was loved dearly by his nieces and nephews and had a wonderful sense of humor, and often pestered his brothers and co-workers.

Scott is survived by his beloved mother, Sharon K. (Grubb) Holsapple, brothers, Rick Holsapple and wife Wanda, and Danny Holsapple and girlfriend Kimberly; and sister, Debbie (Holsapple) York and husband Ray, along with several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Ronald L. Holsapple.

A Celebration of Life Gathering will be held from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 29, 2017 at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington. You are invited to share a memory or leave an online condolence to Scott's family at www.allencares.com

“ I worked in the same area with Scotty on C-83 for almost 30 years. We had some great memories working together; especially when Odie Smith (Pops) was our coordinator. Odie made sure he got to work by all his favorite women! I'm really thankful he thought so much of me. I just recently ran into him at Cracker Barrel with his family, whom he thought the world of. I never dreamed it would be the last time I'd ever see him. I'm really gonna miss you, Bubby!!! You'll always be my NUMBER ONE!!!
