“ It is a sad day for me knowing I didn't get to say goodbye, but I will cherish the times we had together growing up and how you would always make me laugh. You was such a wonderful person and I have alot of good memories. Even though we didn't see each other in our older years I thought about you alot. So until we meet again sweet Brenda you will always be in my heart. I love you, Rest in peace.

Oh Brenda, I'm just learning of your passing. I saw it on pics of our high school reunion. I'm sorry I missed it. I remember all the run we had at church when we were small and attended Grace Baptist Temple. We dressed alike and spent so many Sunday afternoons together. I'll always cherish those times. Last time I saw you was when my mother was at GardenVilla. We used to go across the street at your house and slide in our sock feet on a big flat stone on someone's grave, and play for hours in your place house, that I believe still stands next to your old home. I thought you were so lucky to have that cool playhouse. I adored your parents and will miss you dearly. Love always, Alaine Martin
