“ I'll never forget Candy. She, Tony and I worked together at Marsh Supermarket when we were teenagers. We had a blast! She was always so bubbly and energetic. She made every room shine and everyone around her feel good to be alive. We forged a friendship that has lasted through all the years since graduation. I'll never forget her and how sweet and kind she was. She was an incredible person who raised some extraordinary children. She left a legacy of love and success within each of them. I'm eternally grateful for knowing her and having the honor of calling her my friend. Tony and the kids can call upon me for anything, anytime. I'll always be here.

“ This dear sweet woman has been part of our family since she was 16 years old. The memories keep rushing forth, always a smile on her face. Her kind and thoughtful ways will be with us always. She added so much joy and laughter to our households. I will always remember the many great times we had together. She was a phenomenal mother, wife and daughter-in-law. I loved her dearly. She will be sorely missed.

My heart was so broken when I heard the news about Candy. She and her brother Craig were like my own kids. Craig hung out with Jack, my son and Candy, Nikki, and I were always up to something. One Summer we played softball on a church league. Girls just wanna have fun was out theme song, riding around in my 72 Blue Nova. I love you Candy Leigh. Such a precious soul.

“ Tony, Justin, Molly, and Mary, words cannot express how shocked we were and so extremely sorry for your loss. We have been thinking of you and will continue to think of you during this really difficult time. Candy always waved and smiled at us across the street and we really enjoyed attending the kids "milestone" celebrations as it was obvious that Candy had enjoyed organizing them. She was so proud of you all and was an overall, lovely person. Both David and I would often remark how well brought up Justin, Molly, and Mary were and that is testament to lovely parents. Stay safe and well and big hugs, David and Fiona Patin (formerly across the street).
