“ You are in my thoughts and prayers and I pray that your memories of Carla are a source of comfort at this time. Carla and I worked together at Western Southern for many years, and we were the best of friends. We lost touch after we left WS, but reconnected again last year. She was a beautiful girl inside and out. God called her to Heaven on my birthday, which is a sign to me that God doesn't want me to ever forget Carla Jo, and I never will. Only once in a lifetime will I have a friend like Carla. Eternal friend for sure. I am so sorry. I know God wrapped his arms around her and she loved him and trusted him. hugs -Ellen McDaniel
