Carol was the highlight of everyday that I went to work. She was always smiling and would help anyone and everyone. I asked her if she would be my Grandma a couple of years ago and she said "she would love to." My daughter would come to work with me and call her Grandma also. She will be dearly missed. I will definitely miss that big smile.

“ Carol was my cousin by marriage, and I am honored to have gotten to know the sweet soul she was, when her desk was right outside my office at Hoosier Hills Career Center for several years. She took care of everything and everyone in that school, and students showed their respect by always calling her “Miss Hays.” She was well known for the treats she made and the ham salad she always brought to the staff potlucks. And, I can’t forget her craft artistry and the gifts she made for everyone in or near her office. It was a privilege to call her both colleague and family. Go rest high, dear Carol.
