“ Carol was a great friend and coworker . She was so funny too! When she listened to her music and would burst out singing everyone would laugh and loved it , because it broke up the boredom of our work! God bless you Carol , and your family !

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Carole from Bloomfield and she was a sub on our bowling team back in the day. We had a good time and lot of laughs. Bless your family. Jane Duzan

So many of us met Carole and her family many even became close friends. Carole did have fun and those around her always had a good time no matter if it were richer at work on break, softball, bowling, out cruising or running through a parking lot riding inside shopping carts. Carole enjoyed her friends grandkids and her number one son Jerry she kept in her heart always.
