“ Another of our close knit Marlin group has passed. Carrie’s death is another milepost on our short time here. She was a hoot, for as long as i knew her. A funny, happy girl who didn’t have a mean streak in her anywhere. Lost touch for a long time, my fault for not keeping up, but at reunions she was her positive self. Her loss is felt by so many, including her classmates from so ling ago. I’ll miss you, “babbling brook”. The world is less now without you. Peace to all.

We sat next to each other in third grade. We had fun bothering each other. I think she worked at Joyous Guard Girl Scouts too. Sad to hear the news, she was a sweet person. Adam Darriau
