“ Dearest children, I have so many memories of you darling mother and your sweet dad, too many to write. For many you know how long I have known your family, I used to change the youngest son's diapers! Our dads were long time drinking buddies and still good friends after they quit drinking. He always did dads excavating and ours when we were building homes and septic fields! Your mother was on of the hardest working women I knew, right up there with my mother. Your mother was never without a kind work and warm smile, I know how much you will miss her, always keep those good memories of her alive in your heart and never let the grandchildren forget her. All of my prayers are that the Lord will place His soothing hands on you.
