

Carolyn Sue Brown

March 25, 1948 - April 2, 2025

Carolyn Sue Brown, 77, of Bloomington, Indiana, passed away peacefully at Hospice House on Wednesday, April 2, 2025. Carolyn is survived by her loving husband and life partner Elmer Brown, daughter SuZan Hazel, sister Deborah Stoute, grandson Dalien Fischer, brother in-law Warren Stoute, nephew Jeffery Brown and his wife Devina Brown, and stepdaughter Patricia Hoff and her daughter Sarah Eddy.

Carolyn was a clerical genius in and around Bloomington for most of her life. From legal secretary to bookkeeping for major store chains, she enjoyed her work very much as she was highly organized and extremely motivated. She spent many years doing the accounting for private businesses up until three years ago when her health started to take a turn.

Carolyn enjoyed cooking, creating new meals with her extensive knowledge of spices. Nothing gave her more joy than to sit down to a new and interesting meal she had prepared herself. She also enjoyed the love of her cats. There wasn't a cat that went hungry or without shelter if she had anything to do with it.

Carolyn was a seven-time cancer survivor. Through the love of her sister, daughter, and husband, she powered on. Giving up was never an option. Her road was long, and rough, but she fought for the people she loved. Her fight with her health has finally ended. She can finally be free from all earthly constraints.

A celebration of life will be announced at a later date. The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in her name to Hospice House for their care and to the Monroe County Animal Shelter.

“ My nana was a truly remarkable woman, whose strength and wisdom left a lasting impression on me. She taught me the importance of responsibility and the courage to pursue my dreams with determination. Beyond that, she instilled in me a deep love for animals, showing me how vital it is to care for and nurture those in need. Her kindness and resilience will always be a guiding light in my life, and I'll forever carry the lessons she imparted with me. ”

“ She gave me life. She gave me strength. She gave me everything she had. Rest now mommy, you have given enough. ”
