“ It has been almost 20 years since I got to work with Chad on a daily basis, but though our interactions have been more rare over the years, it always felt like the good old days whenever we would catch up. That's how he was. More than a year could go by and we would pick up right where we left off. The news of his passing made me wish that I had found more opportunities to connect with Chad. I already miss him.

Sending love, strength and peace to Chad's family and friends.

“ Such a short time we knew Chad but so quickly we learned of his fine character (he was a good guy) and his great love of and devotion to his family. His was a life all too short on this earth but eternity now in Heaven.

“ Jennifer, Paige and family.

I am so sorry to learn of Chad passing, your beloved husband and father. I worked with him over 10 years ago, but I clearly remember his character, his love of family. He believed in the good of everyone. I remember Chad showing me the car rebuild project he was working on with his Dad. Working for years in Quality, he was able to walk the line holding high quality standards, and work with individual operators, to help them understand how to prevent future mistakes, and after this, make them feel important, needed and essential.

Chad has left you too soon, but maybe there is work for him up there. May God give you the strength, support to deal with this terrible loss. So many of us have such good memories of Chad. He touched so many of our lives, and I firmly believe he will continue to touch yours. Pete Lenzen

“ Such a precious man. I've known Chad for over 40 years. Many days were spent at ball parks watching Chad and our son play ball together. Chad would spend the night at our house and we shared many happy times together. One thing that always comes to mind with Chad is his dimpled smile. He was always willing to help out when needed. He will be missed. Love and prayers to his family.

“ Chad is one of the sweetest men I’ve ever known. He had the best smile that would show off his dimples. He was always ready to lend a helping hand. We spent many years with Chad and his family at the ballpark sharing many wonderful times together. He was one of the boys that I always enjoyed having at our house. Our loss is Heaven’s gain. I’m so thankful to have been blessed with knowing Chad. Prayers to the family.

“ There is deep sadness within the Berry Global family when we learned of Chad's passing. I enjoyed working with Chad for many years. He was dedicated to his job, his operations team and to his customers. He stayed calm in a crisis and did his ultimate best to make improvements in his role. But the best part of Chad was what a great person he was to be around. We shared lots of laughs, which made the work day a good day - from making up pretend Quality catastrophes, getting lost in Canada and debating who loved Chic-fil-A the best. He will truly be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family during this terribly difficult time. Sincerely - Katy Hedden
