

Charles Robert "Bob" Davis

January 14, 1927 - May 8, 2014

Charles Robert "Bob" Davis, age 87 of Bloomfield, New Mexico passed away Thursday May 8, 2014 at Indiana University Health Bloomington Hospital. He was born January 14, 1927 in Shelby County Indiana to Charles Arnold and Dorothy Means Arnold. Shortly after birth he came to know James and Rose Davis as his adoptive parents.

Bob, as he was widely known to family and friends, spent his professional career as a carpenter, residential building contractor and owner along with his wife, Deldora, of a mobile home park in New Mexico. He proudly served in the United States Navy at the conclusion of World War II. He was always known as an avid gardner, outdoorsman, conversationalist, and a self educated individual.

Bob is survived by son James A. Davis and wife Beverly of Albuquerque, New Mexico; daughter Sharon McKeen and husband Dr. Charles McKeen MD, of Bloomington; grandchildren Charles E. McKeen and wife Kathryn, Erin Johnston and husband Andrew, Regan Redstone and husband Josh, Laura Riddle and husband Mark, Kerry Fuentes and husband Jose; seven great grandchildren; sister Ruby Moon Vandever; brother in law Donald Nelson. He was preceded in death by both his biological parents and adoptive parents, brothers Jack Arnold and Jerry Davis, and sisters Sharon K. Arnold and Carol Sue Rogers Bobella.

Graveside services will be held later this week in Farmington, New Mexico where he will be laid to rest next to his wife Deldora who preceded him in death in 2013.
