“ To the family and especially Mark and Teresa,

I am one of the therapists that worked extensively with Judy and that is how I first met Charlie and then also worked with him later on. We would periodically correspond with cards. I am sorry that I did not see the obituary in time to come to the funeral home. He was a very special person and I know he will be missed by all of you. But Praise the Lord that we will all meet again in due time.

Comfort and Blessings to all of you.

“ To the family:

What a joy it was to visit with Charlie! Those warmer days when we could sit on the porch were best; but his love for visiting and just "talking" were always with great pleasure. His love for basketball was exceeded by his love for talking about the Bible. It was my pleasure to help his understanding of God's Truth. I'm so happy to have been the one to immerse him into Christ! I indeed shall miss him! May God comfort your hearts in knowing he is now at rest.
