

Charles E. Henry,

February 11, 1924 - July 8, 2011

Charles E. Henry, Sr., 87, of Bloomington died on Friday, July 8, 2011 at Owen Valley Health Campus in Spencer. He was born on Feb. 11, 1924 in Connorsville, Indiana the son of William and Nellie (Bream) Henry. He owned and operated the former Westside Lumber Co. in Bloomington and also worked for Penn Kitchens before retiring from the Internal Revenue Service. He was also an Army veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his daughter and son-in-law, Carol and Ike Martin of Bloomington and one son, Charles E. Henry, Jr. He was preceded in death by his wife Betty in 1994, and one brother.

Friends may call at Allen Funeral Home, 4155 S. Old St. Rd. 37 in Bloomington today, Sunday, July 10th from 4:00-8:00 p.m. Private family services will be held on Monday. Interment will be at Valhalla Memory Gardens. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Tribute Wall

KE

“ Chuck, sorry to hear about your Dads passing, my sympathies to you and the family.

Kevin McCaffery - March 22, 2013 at 08:19 AM

DE

“ Dear Chuck & Family, We are so sorry to hear of the passing of your dad. He as a good man and he will be missed. As with your mother, she was a great person and fun to be around. Thnk of the goo time always, you would honor him by remembering the good times and life and the fun times we all had on Stoutes Creek Road.
Dennis, Theresa and Travis

Dennis Matthews - March 22, 2013 at 08:19 AM

DA

“ Dear Chuck, Carol and Ike,

I am very sad and sorry about Charlie's passing. A significant piece of my past goes with him. He was my co-worker and personal confidant for many years. I had no better friend than Charlie. He was respected as a gentleman in the IRS and among the communities where he worked. You should be very proud of your father and what he stood for.

David Crites - March 22, 2013 at 08:19 AM