

Charles "Charlie" E. Giles

February 27, 1958 - February 12, 2016

Charlie Giles of Bloomington, passed gently at Hospice early Friday morning 2/12/2016.

Charlie was a life long resident of Bloomington, and a graduate of Bloomington High School South. He had been a long time employee of the Monroe County Highway Dept., later working with Fiscus Guttering, and most recently as a professional landscaper.

Charlie was preceded in passing by his father S. Jack Giles, an infant brother, Harold , and great-nephew Dalton Lyph Saunders. He is survived by: Tonya Sutherlin, his life partner of 25 years, step daughter April Sutherlin-MacDougall, his mother, Martha L (Deckard) Bruner, sister Jackie L. Giles, brothers S. Rusty Giles and George Giles, nephews Eric Giles, Jeremy Greene, and Jess Giles, niece Jamie Newton, great nieces, Hanna, Kelly, Shanna, and Leah, and great nephews Jarret, William, Jacob, and Wyatt,

He spent his free time enjoying NASCAR, country music, horticulture, woodworking antique furniture, and doing his utmost to help others whenever, however, he could.

As such, Charlie specifically requested (and his family enthusiastically agrees) that well-wishers make donations to benefit Mother Hubbard's Cupboard. <http://mhcfoodpantry.org/>
