

Charles Robert "Bob" Harden

January 9, 1954 - January 31, 2021

Charles Robert "Bob" Harden Jr., age 64, of Ellettsville died early Sunday morning at I.U. Health Bloomington Hospital due to complications of Covid 19. Born January 9th, 1957 in Monroe County, he was the son of Charles Robert and Clara Ellen (Lucas) Harden Sr. He loved his family unconditionally and was married to the love of his life for 46 years. He was a licensed Minister with the Assemblies of the Lord Jesus Christ from June 1994 until his death. He pastored the Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ in Ellettsville from 1995-2003. He had worked for General Electric until he was disabled in 2005. His greatest joy came from being able to play music and preach the word of God. He was a member of Apostolic Faith Assembly in Bedford.

He is survived by his wife, Mabel (Kinser) Harden of Ellettsville; two daughters, Julia (Harden) Eads of Bloomington and Jennifer Harden of Ellettsville; three brothers, Melvin Harden and David Harden both of Bloomfield, Michael (Annetta) Harden of Bloomington; three sisters, Shirley Sexton, April Hammond, and Donna Plummer all of Bloomington; and one granddaughter, Gracie Eads of Bloomington.

He was preceded in death by his parents Charles Robert and Clara Ellen Harden Sr., his sister Cathy Harden, and his son Jeffrey Robert Harden.

There will be a Celebration of Life service at Apostolic Faith Assembly 501 5th Street Bedford, IN 47421 on March 6th at 1pm. Condolences can be sent to Mabel Harden
