“ Chuck was always there to greet us every morning! He would brighten your day with his smile and his kind words. I am sorry for our loss of your kind words and sly smile, coming into work will seem less bright without you here. Calloway you are in our thoughts, in my experience you were a wonderful brother to Chuck. RIP Chuck you will be truly missed.

“ Every time I would take the RT bus to work, or school we often would swing by to pick him up. He would greet me with a wave and a "good morning, have a blessed day!" I always felt optimistic after each interaction with him. Despite his battles in life, he always never failed to make anyone he interacted with at ease. Rest easy my friend, we will cover your spot on West 3rd St from here.- Dylan Parks, passenger of the RT bus and Endwright Center Volunteer

“ I never spoke for very long with Charles (I didn't know his name) but I would guess for hundreds (!) of mornings- in all but the coldest or most coming down out of the sky kind of weather- he would be sitting on the curb outside the Rural Transit entrance- waiting on an RT bus when I drove in, to park for my workday. He always raised his arm in greeting and had a friendly word for me- this always suggested the possibility of a good day ahead- even on days that turned out to be discouraging- he helped me to be optimistic. I am very sad to hear that he has passed. God Bless Charles and all his family!- Rosemary at Area 10

“ I only knew Chuck through his use of Area 10's Rural Transit System. On the days he would ride the bus, he would wait outside our office for pick up. Each morning that occurred, he would greet me fondly, offer a kind compliment, and wish me a blessed day. Those interactions were often game changers for my entire day. There is always so much ugly in this world...and he offered nothing but light and beauty in my interactions with him. I will greatly miss his greetings in the morning. I hope for peace of heart for all those who loved him. Kelly W-Area 10
